

Tourist Potential in Orissa

1365. SHRI B. J. PANDA:
MS. PRAMILA BOHIDAR:

Will the Minister of TOURISM be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware that Orissa, the cradle of Buddhism, has good potential for tourism industry;

(b) whether this potential in the Nabarangapur district remains untapped with many historic places including Podagada lying neglected;

(c) whether the Podagada, rich in lapidary inscriptions, sculptures, ruined forts and temples, needs renovation; and

(d) if so, what is the action plan of the Central Government to address the above issues to boost tourism to improve the economy of the State?

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM (SHRIMATI AMBIKA SONI): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) The State Govt. of Orissa has neither prioritized nor submitted any project proposal for Nabarangapur District including Podagada for the year 2006-07.

Unexplored Buddhist relics in Orissa

1366. MS. PRAMILA BOHIDAR:
SHRI B.J. PANDA:

Will the Minister of TOURISM be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware that Langudi in Orissa-possesses innumerable unexplored Buddhist relics lying beneath the ground;

(b) whether Langudi hillock and its adjoining areas need extensive research to bring to light many unknown aspects of Buddhist history in Orissa;

(c) if so, whether the ASI has taken over the above site for conservation for posterity; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM (SHRIMATI AMBIKA SONI): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. The Langudi Hill in Orissa has innumerable unexplored Buddhist relics beneath the ground. Extensive survey/exploration of the Langudi Hill and other sites adjoining to the said area were conducted by Orissan Institute of Maritime and South East Studies, Bhudaneswar and some important Buddhist remains have been recovered.

(c) and (d) The Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) has declared the Langudi hill and the archaeological remains as monument of national importance on 25.2.2004. The ownership of the site still rests with the Government of Orissa.
